

The Calendar for the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph

The saving work of Christ is celebrated throughout the Church in its general calendar of liturgical days. The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph observes supplementary days as indicated herein.

The Catholic Church's general table of liturgical days includes these as proper solemnities (4):

1. Solemnity of the principal patron of the place, that is, the city or state.
2. Solemnity of the dedication of a particular church and the anniversary.
3. Solemnity of the title of a particular church.
4. Solemnity of the title, or of the founder, or of the principal patron of a religious order or congregation.

These are proper feasts (8):

1. Feast of the principal patron of the diocese.
2. Feast of the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral.
3. Feast of the principal patron of a region or province, or a country, or of a wider territory.
4. Feast of the title, founder, or principal patron of an order or congregation and of a religious province, without prejudice to the directives in no. 4.
5. Other feasts proper to an individual church.
6. Other feasts listed in the calendar of a diocese or of an order or congregation.

These are proper obligatory memorials (11):

1. Memorial of a secondary patron of the place, diocese, region, or province, nation or wider territory, or of an order or congregation and of a religious province.
2. Other obligatory memorials listed in the calendar of a diocese, or of an order or congregation.

The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar further makes these points:

“45 On Rogation and Ember Days the Church is accustomed to entreat the Lord for the various needs of humanity, especially for the fruits of the earth and for human labor, and to give thanks to him publicly.

“46 In order that the Rogation Days and Ember Days may be adapted to the different regions and different needs of the faithful, the Conferences of Bishops should arrange the time and manner in which they are held.

“Consequently, concerning their duration, whether they are to last one or more days, or be repeated in the course of the year, norms are to be established by the competent authority, taking into consideration local needs.

“47 The Mass for each day of these celebrations should be chosen from among the Masses for Various Needs, and should be one which is more particularly appropriate to the purpose of the supplications.

“48 The ordering of the celebration of the liturgical year is governed by a calendar, which is either general or particular, depending on whether it has been laid down for the use of the entire Roman Rite, or for the use of a Particular Church or religious family.

“49 . . . Particular calendars, however, are to be drawn up by the competent authority and approved by the Apostolic See.

“50 In drawing up a particular calendar, attention should be paid to the following:

“a) The Proper of Time, that is, the cycle of Times, Solemnities, and Feasts by which the mystery of redemption is unfolded and honored during the liturgical year, must always be kept intact and enjoy its rightful preeminence over particular celebrations.

“b) Proper celebrations must be combined organically with universal celebrations, with attention to the rank and precedence indicated for each in the Table of Liturgical Days. So that particular calendars may not be overburdened, individual Saints should have only one celebration in the course of the liturgical year, although, where pastoral reasons recommend it, there may be another celebration in the form of an Optional Memorial marking the translatio or inventio of the bodies of Patron Saints or Founders of Churches or of religious families.

“c) Celebrations granted by indult should not duplicate other celebrations already occurring in the cycle of the mystery of salvation, nor should their number be increased out of proportion.

“52 A particular calendar is prepared by the insertion in the General Calendar of proper Solemnities, Feasts and Memorials, that is:

“a) in a diocesan calendar, besides celebrations of Patrons and of the dedication of the Cathedral church, the Saints and Blessed who have special connections with the diocese, e.g., by their birth, residence over a long period, or their death...

“54 Proper celebrations should be inscribed in the Calendar as Obligatory or Optional Memorials, unless other provisions have been made for them in the Table of Liturgical Days, or there are special historical or pastoral reasons. There is no reason, however, why some celebrations may not be observed in certain places with greater solemnity than in the rest of the diocese or religious family.

“55 Celebrations inscribed in a particular calendar must be observed by all who are bound to follow that calendar and may only be removed from the calendar or changed in rank with the approval of the Apostolic See

“58 For the pastoral good of the faithful, it is permitted to observe on Sundays in Ordinary Time those celebrations that fall during the week and that are agreeable to the devotion of the faithful, provided the celebrations rank above that Sunday in the Table of Liturgical Days. The Mass of such celebrations may be used at all the celebrations of Mass at which the people are present.

Parish Solemnities

Each parish celebrates its patron day as a solemnity each year. If a feast of higher rank displaces it (e.g., a Sunday in Advent), the patron solemnity is moved to the next available date on the liturgical calendar. A parish that celebrates its patron on a weekday in Ordinary Time may transfer the solemnity to the nearest Sunday and observe it with the appropriate readings and prayers.

In the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, some parish patron days are already solemnities on the general calendar:

- Annunciation, Kearney; St. Mary the Virgin, Carrollton
- Christ the King, Kansas City
- Co-Cathedral of St. Joseph, St. Joseph; St. Joseph, Easton, Parnell, and Trenton
- Good Shepherd, Smithville (Fourth Sunday of Easter)
- Holy Spirit, Lee’s Summit (Pentecost)
- Holy Trinity, Urich and Weston
- Immaculate Conception in Kansas City (cathedral), Independence (St. Mary’s), Lexington, Montrose, Nevada (St. Mary’s), and Richmond
- Sacred Heart in Hamilton, Norborne, and Warrensburg; and Sacred Heart-Guadalupe in Kansas City

- St. Mary's, Higginsville; St. Mary, St. Joseph (December 8)
- St. Peter in Kansas City and Stanberry; St. Paul in Tarkio (June 29)
- Blessed Sacrament in Bethany (The Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ)

In addition, each parish celebrates the anniversary of its dedication as a solemnity each year. If the anniversary date falls on a weekday in Ordinary Time, the parish may transfer it to the nearest Sunday.

Special Days of Prayer

January 1 is the diocesan Day of Prayer for World Justice and Peace. However, the texts for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God are used for the liturgy.

May 15 is the diocesan Day of Prayer for the Harvest and the Fruits of the Earth. It replaces the optional memorial of St. Isidore.

July 4 is the diocesan Day of Prayer for Human Rights and Equality.
