

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In a moment you'll hear Bishop Johnston's message about the Annual Catholic Appeal for the diocese. We are conducting our annual cathedral parish appeal at the same time. You are receiving two pledge cards in the mail. If you have them with you, you may add them to the collection. We will have additional copies in the pews, or you fill them out online.

As you know when you share, your trust in the will grows. You discover new meanings to today's responsorial psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." Thank you for your generosity. Your pledge today helps us plan for the future and helps you make a commitment to good stewardship in the church.

Within the parish, we ask you to contribute not just your treasure, but also your time and talent. There are many ways to become active in the cathedral community, sharing your gifts and strengthening your faith with one another. Please look over the time and talent brochure that comes with the pledge forms.

This weekend I ask you prayerfully to pledge your support for the coming year. Now, let's hear Bishop Johnston.
